Mr. A. Eachara Menon.—May I know whether the Director has seen the place himself?

Dr. E. S. R. Menon.—I myself had not been to the road. But I have received information about it.

Mr. A. Eachara Menon.—May I request the Director to go and see the place to know whether the information he has received is true or not?

Mr. President.—You ask him to go in a cart?

Mr. A. Eachara Mnon.—Certainly it is better.

Civil suits disposed of by Panchayat Courts.

329. Mr. P. Raman Menon.—Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) the number of civil cases disposed of by the various Panchayat Courts in the State during 1105—1110;

(b) the average pendency of suits in a Panchayat Court;

(c) the aggregate income that the Government has derived by way of Court fees paid in Panchayat Courts during 1105 — 1110?

Dr. E. S. R. Menon.—(a) 27,500.

(b) The average pendency for disposing of a suit in a Panchayat Court from 1105-1110 may be taken as 136 days.

(c) Rs. 27,397-5-4.

Mr. Iyyappan's Oil Mill, Trichur—Inspection by th Director of Public Health.

330. Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar.—Will the Government be pleased to state whether they are aware that there did not exist a rice mill in Mr. Iyyappan's oil mill, Trichur, on 7th Meenam 1109, when the Director of Public Health inspected the mill and reported "water supply for drinking and soaking paddy is from a well..... The well may be covered over by a suitable and movable cover to prevent dust entering into the well from the Rice Mills?"

Dr. E. S. R. Menon.—No, on the other hand the Government were aware of the existence of a rice mill there at the time of the said inspection in 1109.

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly